

Aria

Aria is a stylish task chair made using a large proportion of recycled and recyclable materials. The comfortable mesh backrest with an easy to adjust height mechanism allows for a simple comfortable seating position in seconds.

All components are sourced and manufactured in Europe and assembled in the UK.

Aria without and with armrests

Specifications

- fixed height back rest
- Aria comes as standard with a black frame with black mesh or grey frame with grey mesh. Frame and mesh colours cannot be mixed.
- balance mechanism. Automatic tension adjustment to compensate for body weight with seat tilt
- seat is adjustable in depth as standard
- moulded foam for increased comfort
- matching base/frame and mesh backs in either black or grey (cannot be mixed)
- weight limit: 110 kg

Materials

- CMHR foams
- recycled materials for base & frame
- recycled materials for mesh
- seat can be upholstered in a wide range of fabrics; in accordance with colour chart

Options

- 3D arms (height and width adjustable)
- soft tyre castors
- polished aluminium base

Armrests

3D arms

Quality labels

- upholstery: large range of sustainable fabrics
- BS EN 1335-1:2020